Self-guided Tours: (In)Visible Princeton

“(In)Visible Princeton” is a series of four historical walking tours of campus. The four themes focus on stories of African Americans at Princeton, “firsts” on campus, Princeton traditions, and women at Princeton. Tours are web-based and mobile friendly, available on any device with an Internet connection. They include interpretive text and audio narration in addition to images, audio, and video.

Take a tour in its entirety, or use your phone’s camera to activate individual stops from QR codes on color-coded stickers placed around campus. All four tours are available at bit.ly/PrincetonHistoryTours
